THEME OF THE MONTH: FINANCIAL FORTUNE IS MY HERITAGE - DEUT 8:18

UNLOCKING THE SUPERNATURAL (PART 4)

Behold, I and the children whom the Lord hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the Lord of hosts, which dwelleth in Zion. Isaiah 8:18 (King James Version)

All of God's children are initiated into the realm of the supernatural at new birth (John 3:8). Walking in the supernatural is also God's plan for everyone. However, to walk in the supernatural requires that we have access to the right keys to unleash our potential. Thus far, we have reviewed six keys as vital to walking in the supernatural. These keys are the Word of God, the key of Faith, the key of the Holy Ghost, the key of the Spoken Word, the key of the Name of Jesus and Key of Testimonies. In this concluding part of the series, we learn about two more keys.

KEYS TO UNLOCKING THE SUPERNATURAL

1. THE KEY OF ANGELIC INTERVENTION: Angels are spiritual personalities with physical impact (Hebrews 1:14; Acts 12:21-23; Daniel 3:18-28). Angels are invisible but their presence and deeds are undeniable (Daniel 6:2). Angels are for the advancement of the believer and every believer is assigned an angel (Matthew 18:10; Hebrews 1:13-14). Furthermore, angels are on assignment to fulfil or enforce the word of God and serve the interests of the believer (Psalm 103:20; Psalm 34:7; Exodus 23:20). However, the right understanding about angels and their purpose is necessary (Hosea 4:6). They are God's messengers and He sends them on errands. Likewise as believers, whenever we release God's words, we send angels on errands (2 Kings 19:35-37).

CHARACTERISTICS OF ANGELS

1. Angels are spiritual personalities but operate as flames of fire (Hebrews

1:7). Their fire is unquenchable and unstoppable: It also consumes other fires around.

2. Angels are agents of divine rescue. The angel of God rescued Lot when Sodom and Gomorrah was destroyed. The angel also rescued Peter from prison (Genesis 11:1-25; Acts 12:7-9; Acts 5:18-20).
3. Angels are agents of divine judgement. God sends them on behalf of His children to judge their accusers (Acts 12:21-23; Daniels 6:21-24; Psalms 35:5-9). We must not undermine the importance of angels; rather we must utilise them.
4. Angels are agents of divine protection. They are sent to protect and defend us on every issue of life (Psalms 34:7; Psalms 91:10-12).
5. Angels are agents of supernatural church growth. They persuade individuals to come to church (Matthew 13:39).
6. Angels are also agents of divine direction. They help us correctly navigate the course of our lives (Genesis 16:7-11; Genesis 24:7).
7. Angels are agents of good news. They always bring good tidings to the believer (Daniel 10:13).

HOW TO PUT OUR ANGELS TO WORK?

1. Know about them – We need to be in touch or in tune with our angel (John 8:32; Daniel 11:32; 2 Peter 1:3)
2. Engage them with confidence (2 Timothy 1:7; Hebrews 10:35; Daniel 6:22; Genesis 32:26)

3. Engage them on the altar of prayer – We put our angels to work via prayers (Daniel 10:10; Genesis 32:24-30)
4. Command the angels – Until we give a command, our angels will not work (Hebrew 1:14; Matthew 26:53; 2 Kings 6:18).

2. THE KEY OF PRAISE:

Praise is another powerful tool to trigger the supernatural. God sends His angels but praise brings God on the scene to perform fearful acts (Exodus 15:11; Acts 16:25-30; Psalm 68:1; Psalm 92:1). Every time we praise God, we trigger the supernatural. When things seem hopeless, praise God and He will take over the battle (2 Chronicles 20:22-24). God dwells in an atmosphere of praise therefore, it is wisdom to praise Him at all times even in the midst of adversity rather than fall into depression (Psalm 22:3; Psalm 67:5-6; 2 Samuel 6:17-23). Praise is a vital ingredient for the power of the anointing to manifest (Psalm 92:10-11). Praise brings a believer to the realm of fearful blessings (2 Kings 19:35). David was a man after God's heart simply because he continually magnified God through praises. This act earned David a God given legacy (2 Samuel 7:1-28). If we desire a change of story in our circumstance, then we must praise God (Acts 3:1-10; Psalms 11:3; Psalm 67:5-7).

HOW TO EXPERIENCE A CHANGE OF STORY?

A change of story is simply an encounter with God or a visitation from God that results in a change of circumstance or the rewriting of a situation. To experience a change of story, we must do the following:

I. Desire a change of story – We must avoid being complacent for there is always room for improvement (Mark 11:24; Proverbs 4:18). God will not give us what we do not desire. We also need to change our thinking style by cultivating the habit of thinking only good, positive and godly thoughts. Good thoughts generate income, solve problems and create opportunities. We must avoid negative thoughts (Romans 12:2; John 14:26).

II. Prepare for change – This is our proof that we are ready for a change (Isaiah 54:2-3). We must develop our mind by being active mentally and be ready to renew our mind. We must invest in our mind more than anything because an investment in our mind is far more profitable than any other investments (Isaiah 1:18; Philemon 1:14).

III. Confess or speak our desired change – God will not speak on our behalf. It is our responsibility to address the challenge while God confirms our spoken words (Isaiah 44:25-27; Jeremiah 1:10). What we say is what God puts His stamp of approval on (Luke 21:15).

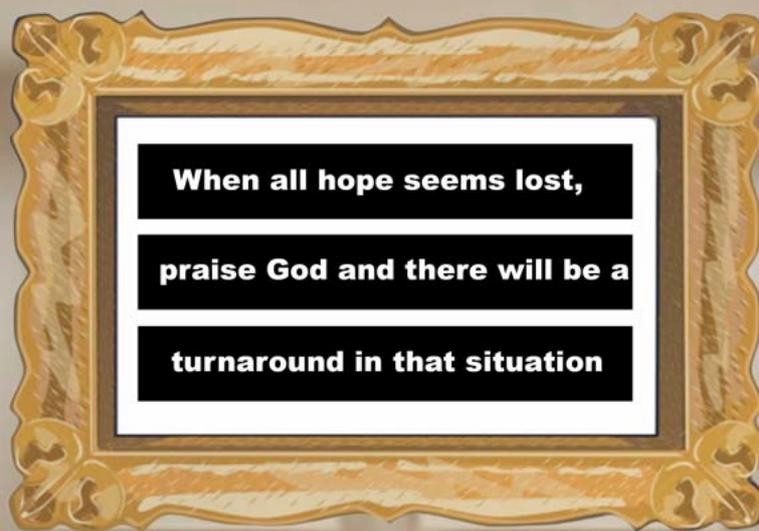

Every believer has a destiny to operate in the supernatural. However, walking in the supernatural requires that we must first be born again. If you would like to begin your covenant walk with God and operate in the supernatural, kindly say the prayer of salvation in this leaflet with sincerity. God bless you.

Prayer of SALVATION

Prayer of Salvation If you would like to know God or renew your relationship with Him, sincerely say the prayer of faith below:

“Lord Jesus, I come to you today, I know that I am a sinner but you died for me and on the third day you rose again. Jesus come into my life, be my Lord and Saviour. Take control over me from this day forward. Thank you for saving me from a life of sin. in Jesus name. Amen.

Congratulations! You are now born again. We would welcome your testimonies on how our messages or publications have impacted your life. You are blessed!

TESTIMONIES: THE WONDERS OF GOD

DIVINE PRESERVATION - FORLINA A.

I turned 72 years of age in July 2019 and God has been faithful. Ever since I joined Winners Chapel International, I have experienced God's presence in my life. Before joining this church, I felt as though ghosts were haunting me. Today however, I drive them away whenever they try to show up in my dreams. My perception of Zion was that it was a place in Jerusalem but now I understand from Bible study in this church that Zion is the gathering of saints. Every time I am in church, I know I am in Zion. Thanks be to God for preserving and showing me His light. Praise the Lord!

FIRST CLASS DEGREE VIA OBEDIENCE - RICHARD I.

Four years ago I had a leading in my spirit to return to school and study for a degree in law. I made up my mind to settle for a first class degree since I had delayed this long in getting a degree. I applied to the university but was rejected and offered a place to study engineering instead of law. I was quite upset, as I did not like mathematics. However, the Holy Spirit ministered to me and I obeyed. I used to declare that I would graduate with a first class degree until my final year when things became rather challenging at university. Back in March, I listened to a message preached by one of our pastors on 'Engaging the Spirit of Faith for Dominion' where he explained how he prophesied concerning his degree ahead of course completion. I was inspired by this message and again began to declare that I wanted to graduate with a first class. God answered my prayers and I recently graduated with a first class in Engineering. Glory be to God.

DIVINE FAVOUR - PRICILLA Y.

On the 25th July 2019, I was summoned on charges of driving a vehicle without insurance. I wrote a note to challenge the case as I felt I was wrongly charged. In the note, I mentioned that my husband had forgotten to transfer the insurance from my broken down vehicle to the current one. I also stated that I was a nurse and clearly understood the importance of being honest. On completing the note, I wrapped the mantle (spiritual cloth) around it. I also applied the anointing oil as a body lotion and proceeded to the court. The case was judged in my favour and I was vindicated without charge. Furthermore, I received my British passport this week and I have returned to give God all the glory.

DIVINE PROVISION AND CAREER ADVANCEMENT - GEORGE O.

I am grateful to God for adding another year to my life last week. I have never been to the hospital before but I was keen to get a report on my health so I literally had to force my doctor to carry out some tests for me. To the glory of God, the test results were positive and I am in good health. Furthermore, I returned to school and graduated from both undergraduate and postgraduate degrees with a grade of distinction. To crown my victory, God also gave me a housing estate in Lekki, Lagos Nigeria. Praise the Lord.

DIVINE PROVISION - PATRICIA N.

I have come to testify of God's goodness to me. A few weeks ago during one of the Sunday services, Pastor declared that we would receive our miracle within a week. I believed the prophetic word of God and within a week I heard from the Home Office. My stay in the United Kingdom was granted. Praise God!

CAREER SUCCESS - EJIRO O.

My testimony spans over five years when I began my Doctorate in Philosophy (PhD). I got a scholarship to study and during my studies, I encountered some challenges, as my supervisor was not keen to work with me. I told him to give me a week and then we can decide on my eligibility to continue the course. I attended The Word of Faith Bible Institute (WOFBI) during that week and to my amazement, I got another scholarship. At the end of my PhD programme, the examiners told me that they had decided not to award me with a PhD but a Masters in Philosophy (MPhil) as my work was not good enough. I challenged their decision and had to face two disciplinary panels. The case was quashed and I was awarded my Doctorate degree last week. I was also the best Postgraduate graduating student in the school. I have come to return all the glory to God.

MIRACLE HEALING FROM CARDIOMYOPATHY - ABAYOMI S.

God has been good to me. I suffered from Cardiomyopathy, which is a disease of muscles growth in the heart. There were occasions where I felt so weak to do anything but God preserved me. Some weeks ago Pastor told us to pray for the person standing beside us in church and I prayed for my husband while he did the same. Although I felt very weak, I kept on praying. Suddenly, I felt something strange leave my body. Today I am healed and have returned to give God all the glory.

CAREER PROGRESSION - THERESA O.

I desired to progress my career over two years ago from a teaching assistant to a full teacher in specialised schools for deaf and dumb pupils. I was put forward for a job by an agency, which I did not apply to. I was called to attend an interview day teaching with pay. I performed to a very high standard on the day but the session was cut short based on information received from the agency. The school was informed that I did not have the required work permit to carry on working in the United Kingdom. When I heard this, I did not argue with the school, I simply left and had a discussion with my lawyer. The school agreed to offer me a place if I could get a letter from the Home Office stating I had the rights to work. This information was needed before the school breaks off for the summer holiday. However, The God of Wonders showed up and I received my documents in time. I will be starting a new role as a teacher shortly. God is faithful!
